

Dr. Jeschonnek conveys her passion for physics in a very contagious way. At first I struggled horribly, but after really pouring myself and my time into the material and pestering Dr. Jeschonnek during her lunch hour (which she so graciously allowed). I became excited about the physics that I was learning. I have enjoyed physics and would highly recommend this instructor!