Ethics and Aging

Working with older adults raises many ethical issues; conflict between core values of autonomy, health and safety, justice and the reality of poor decision making create ethical dilemmas. This workshop will focus on how we ethically address these issues with clients and patients, ensuring the privacy of their needs, and how our own values influence our work with older adults, both positively and negatively. Lisa Durham, MSW, LISW, Director of Field and Continuing Education at The Ohio State University College of Social Work will present.

Contact Hours: Awarded to RNs and LPNs (3.0) and SWs (3.0); Applications submitted for NHAs (3.0)
