Eternity

One day, my life shall end
But a memory shall stay

It lives in the woods,
The rivers, and the hay

If frolics beside you,
Enjoying the day

It watches you at bedtime
As you start to pray

When the times comes
For you to go away

The memory of me and you
Will always stay