Learn the tools to help your students succeed

Earn a K-12 Reading Endorsement at The Ohio State University at Lima by June 2019
Courses taught by experts who specialize in helping struggling readers.
lima.osu.edu

---

COURSES

Summer 2018
Edu T&L 5610: Language Arts & ESL Instruction
ONLINE

Edu T&L 7428: Trends and Issues in Teaching Reading
ONLINE

Autumn 2018
Edu T&L 5470: Assessment and Remediation for Struggling Readers
THURSDAYS 4:40-7:40 p.m. Hybrid Course
If you are currently working toward an M.A. in education, these credits will count toward your degree. If you begin an M.A. program within five years, you may apply seven credit hours to your degree.

Spring 2019
Edu T&L 5471: Clinical Practice in Treating Reading Disabilities
TUESDAYS 5:00-8:00 p.m. Hybrid Course
Edu T&L 5469: Phonics is available if not taken in pre-service program or is older than 10 years. The State of Ohio requires all teachers to have this course.

---

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Check out the summer professional development opportunities at Ohio State Lima:

- Development of 4th and 5th Grade Learners Across Contexts
- Teaching Math, Science and Culture 4th and 5th Grades
- Understanding Phonics and Its Role in Instruction
- Language Arts & ESL Instruction
- Trends and Issues in Teaching Reading
- Psych Perspectives on Education
- Communication Skills for Children with Moderate/Intensive Disabilities
- Applied Behavior Analysis for Teachers
- Educational Assessment of Students with Mild/Moderate Disabilities
- Inclusive Classroom Management
- Field Experience in Special Education

---

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

1. Be a licensed teacher—as required by the State of Ohio
2. For application, enrollment, and financial aid procedures, contact Deborah Barton at: barton.1@osu.edu or (419) 995-8494

NOTE: Some previous degrees and courses may count toward this endorsement program. Check the following website for qualifying experiences, such as Reading Recovery, Literacy Collaborative, and TESOL.

For full details regarding professional development opportunities visit go.osu.edu/edupd

Check with your principal or superintendent regarding tuition vouchers or other professional development funds that may be available.