ABOUT LIFELONG LEARNING AT OHIO STATE LIMA
The Lifelong Learning Institute (LLI) at The Ohio State University at Lima is a program of the Road Scholar Institute and offers classes for mature adults on four Tuesdays and Thursdays in April and October each year. LLI is an independent volunteer organization sponsored by Ohio State Lima since 1991.

Individual classes last one and one half hours and meet at the same time each week. You may sign up for as many or as few classes as you wish. Since classroom size is limited, please register early for the courses you plan to attend.

LLI contributes a portion of the tuition you pay to the Lifelong Learning Institute Scholarship Fund for nontraditional students at Ohio State Lima.

TUESDAYS – October 5, 12, 19, 26

10:00 to 11:30 a.m. – Critical Race Theory

Moderators: Ohio State Lima’s William Angel, PhD, associate professor emeritus in political science at Ohio State Lima, and Jessica A. Johnson, PhD, lecturer in English

This module on Critical Race Theory will illustrate how matters of race have been embedded in our economic, educational, cultural and political institutions in ways that effectively have discriminated against racial minorities. The explanation will be historical, beginning with our country’s founding and continuing to the present day.

On the first day, Jessica and Bill will open the session with a broad overview of what CRT is, with Jessica contributing her insights based on her own experience incorporating African American history into her own classes.

1:00 to 2:30 p.m. – Organization of the theory of relativity in music

Moderator: Robert Mix

What is “Organization of the theory of relativity in music”? Come and be surprised!

2:45 to 4:15 p.m. – Johnny Appleseed Metropolitan Park District

Moderator: Dan Hodges, naturalist, Johnny Appleseed Metropolitan Park District – Dan earned a BS in Zoology and Environmental Science from Miami University. He is a naturalist with the Johnny Appleseed Metro Park District in Allen County.

Join us for a deep dive into our county park district. No nature is off limits, but topics may include the insect orchestra of autumn, ecology of crayfish, fall foliage of Ohio trees and the wonderful world of lichens.

THURSDAYS – October 7, 14, 21, 28

10:00 to 11:30 a.m. – Shakespeare’s “Much Ado About Nothing”

Moderator: Judith E. Gilbert

“Cupid’s crafty arrow” seems to have gone astray in William Shakespeare’s giddy, screwball comedy. Considered his most light-hearted play, “Much Ado” features disguise, treachery, sparring lovers, a bumbling constable and a tragic “Hero.”

1:00 to 2:30 p.m. – Film Musicals

Moderator: David Adams

Hear Hollywood’s guys and dolls sing. See them dance. Visit the “Golden Age of Musicals.” Learn how songs can help (or not) tell a story. Enjoy some of our favorite musical scenes.

2:45 to 4:15 p.m., October 7 and 14 – Allen County Museum

Amy Craft, director of the Allen County Museum

Do you know how long the Allen County Historical Society and Museum has been operating? Do you know where it gets its support? In this session, Museum Director Amy Craft will share a general overview about the museum’s history and operations – its board, revenue, new strategic plan, new educational programs, and exhibits. Learn what makes this county museum unique.

Brittany Venturella, curator of cultural affairs, Allen County Museum

In this session, Brittany will share information about the kinds of artifacts the museum houses, what happens when you donate an object, and how the museum cares for over 200,000 objects. Additionally, information about online access to collections will be shared.

2:45 to 4:15 p.m., October 21 and 28 – ArtSpace/Lima

Moderator: Sally Windle, executive director, ArtSpace/Lima. Sally retired from the Lima City Schools as director of the Arts Education Program.

You may know ArtSpace/Lima as a place for art and summer rallies, but did you know ArtSpace has seven galleries, a theater, a speakeasy, and a secret floor? Learn about the Thompson Building and all that ArtSpace offers for the community. This session will share information on current activities and programs at ArtSpace/Lima.
